

AMY DORSEY BEROS APPOINTED VICE PRESIDENT OF DEVELOPMENT

RALEIGH, NC (April 12, 2016) –The Food Bank of Central & Eastern North Carolina has named Amy Dorsey Beros the new Vice President of Development. Beros joined the Food Bank in 2014 as the Major Gifts Officer. As a key member of the Food Bank’s executive team, Beros will now lead all aspects of fund development across the 34-county service area for the rapidly growing organization.

"Amy is incredibly dedicated and her work with our organization has already made a considerable impact," said Peter Werbicki, President/CEO of the Food Bank of Central & Eastern North Carolina. "Her fundraising expertise and solid roots in the community will strengthen our organization and help us serve more of our hungry neighbors."

Before joining the Food Bank, Beros developed and honed her fundraising skills with Easter Seals and the Inter-Faith Food Shuttle.

"I am honored and excited to transition into this new role with a team and organization I care so deeply about," said Beros. "I look forward to working with the committed and passionate staff and donors to plan for the future of the Food Bank."

A graduate of Clemson University, Amy went on to earn an MBA with a dual concentration in behavioral finance and operations management from DePaul University in Chicago. Amy currently resides in Wake County with her husband and two young children.

About the Food Bank of Central & Eastern North Carolina

The Food Bank of Central & Eastern North Carolina is a nonprofit organization that has provided food for people at risk of hunger in 34 counties in central and eastern North Carolina for more than 30 years. The Food Bank serves a network of more than 800 partner agencies such as soup kitchens, food pantries, shelters, and programs for children and adults through warehouses in Durham, Greenville, New Bern, Raleigh, the Sandhills (Southern Pines), and Wilmington. In fiscal year 2014-2015, the Food Bank distributed more than 57 million pounds of food and non-food essentials through these agencies. Sadly, hunger remains a serious problem in central and eastern North Carolina. In these counties, nearly 650,000 people struggle to access nutritious and adequate amounts of food necessary for an active and healthy life. www.foodbankcenc.org.
