Greenville-New Bern North Carolina area Subway® Restaurants launch Generously Wrapped Program to benefit the Food Bank of Central & Eastern North Carolina and the Food Bank of the Albemarle [Greenville-New Bern], March 8, 2019 – Local Subway® restaurant owners in the Greenville-New Bern area set goal to donate 20,000 meals to the Food Bank of Central & Eastern North Carolina and the Food Bank of the Albemarle.

Now through April 25, 2019 local Subway® restaurants will donate 10¢ of every Signature Wrap sale to local Food Banks to help their neighbors living with hunger. 10¢ can supply one meal to those in need through the local Food Banks. Subway® will donate up to a total of $2,000 totaling 20,000 meals. You can make any sub into a Signature Wrap or try one of the featured Signature Wrap builds: Chipotle Steak or Turkey Bacon & Guacamole made on a Tomato Basil wrap, Savory Rotisserie Style Chicken Caesar on a Spinach wrap or try one of the two new limited time only flavors – the Sesame-Ginger Glazed Chicken and the Sweet N’ Smoky Steak & Guac.

About Food Bank of Central & Eastern North Carolina

The mission of the Food Bank of Central & Eastern North Carolina is: No One Goes Hungry in Central & Eastern North Carolina. Established in 1980, the Food Bank is a nonprofit organization that has provided food for people at risk of hunger in 34 counties for over 35 years. The Food Bank serves a network of more than 800 partner agencies such as soup kitchens, food pantries, shelters, and programs for children and adults through distribution centers in Durham, Greenville, New Bern, Raleigh, the Sandhills (Southern Pines) and Wilmington.

About Food Bank of the Albemarle

The Food Bank of the Albemarle was founded in 1981 and prides itself on fighting hunger and poverty in Northeast North Carolina. The Food Bank serves Beaufort, Bertie, Camden, Chowan, Currituck, Dare, Gates, Hertford, Hyde, Martin, Northampton, Pasquotank, Perquimans, Tyrrell and Washington Counties.
